

Harvey George, Ph.D., DABCC, FACB is a recognized authority in quality assurance programs, and his credits include invitations from the public health systems of Peru, Russia and Ukraine to present quality control courses to senior staff members. Dr. George currently serves as a Senior Associate to TriMark Publications, LLC. His experience includes serving as the Director of the Clinical Laboratory of the Lahey Medical Center, Director of the State Laboratory Institute for the Department of Public Health in Massachusetts and serving as the Director of Laboratories for Calloway Laboratories, Inc. Dr. George holds a B.A. in Biology from Cornell University, an M.S. in Chemistry from University of Tennessee and a Ph.D. Chemistry/Biochemistry from University of Tennessee.